There simply is no panic in heaven. God is never anxious. There is no confusion in the Trinity. God never wrings His hands and wishes He had made a better choice. God never worries about what is going to happen next or stresses over how things are going to turn out. God is never surprised or caught up short. He is never in a situation that overwhelms Him. God never feels needy or unprepared. God never regrets that He did not do better. God never fails at a task. He never makes promises that He cannot keep. He never forgets what He said or what He wants to do next. God never contradicts Himself or fails to be exactly who He said He was. He is all-powerful, absolutely perfect in every way, faithful to every word, sovereign over all that is, the definition of love, and He is righteous, just, tender, and patient all at the same time. He is not dismayed or distracted by our panic and our questions. No, the sovereign move of His grace marches on!

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before Him. In love He predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of His will, to the praise of His glorious grace, with which He has blessed us in the Beloved. In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace, which He lavished upon us, in all wisdom and insight making known to us the mystery of His will, according to His purpose, which He set forth in Christ as a plan for the fullness of time, to unite all things in Him, things in heaven and things on earth. In Him we have obtained an inheritance, having been predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, so that we who were the first to hope in Christ might be to the praise of His glory. (Ephesians 1:3-12)

So God is not discouraged in the face of our weakness and wondering. His plan is not thwarted by our spiritual vacillation. He doesn't look at us and ask whether it's worth it. No, in the face of our ongoing struggles, His plan marches on. Why? It marches on because it is not based on our character, but on His. Redemption does not rest on our resolve, but on His. Salvation doesn't hang on our strength, but on His. We have hope because it all comes from Him and rests on Him. It is humbling to admit, but it is the only place of hope. Nothing of our salvation depends on us. It all rests on His sovereign grace. Here is the bottom line: He is able, He is willing, and He is faithful. Grace supplies everything we need. Grace will win!

Memory Verse

You, however, are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if in fact the Spirit of God dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Him.
